Back

CURRENT CONFIRMED list of units from total inventory

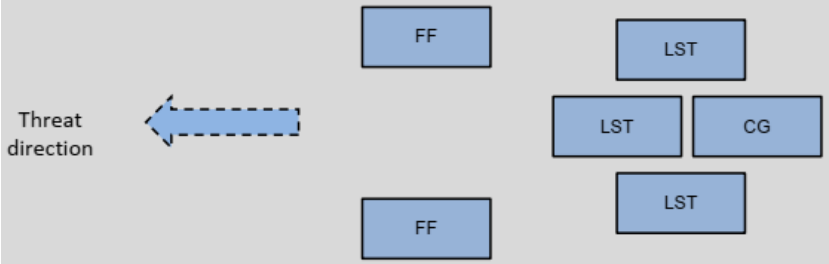

Doctrine: Surface Action Group (SAG)

A doctrinal deployment of a basic SAG place a cruiser at the rear and two frigates upthreat to search for enemy submarines. The Cruisers role is to locate and neutralize enemy surface forces, and act as air defence for the SAG.

A Corvette (Molniya) can be placed upthreat to perform the duty as a picket and report on enemy movement

Doctrine: Amphibious Task Group (ATG)

A doctrinal deployment of a amphibious task group is to have the frigates upthreat to sanitize the area for enemy submarines. The amphibious ships will be organized close to the cruiser for protection.

As the ampibious ships conduct their assault toward the shore, the Cruiser will provide air defence for the landing operation, and the frigates will operate in anti-submarine operations further out from the shore.

CONFIRMED composition of curently deployed SRN NAVAL assets

1x Surface Action Group (CG= Pjotr V. + 2X REZKY)

1x Carrier Strike Group (CG=Moskva, CV Kuznetsov, 4x escort ship(uncertain type)

CONFIRMED
D5.1

A doctrinal deployment of the Carrier Strike Group is to have two frigates upthreat to sanitize the area for enemy submarines. In addition two frigates are covering the rear of the carrier to avoid an ambush. The cruiser are positioned upthreat to act in a air defence and anti surface role to protect the carrier.

Offensive operations are conducted by the carrier based aircraft.

For increased protection, a SAG may be positioned 50nm closer to threat direction to keep the CSG safe.
